Longevity Toronto Canada Student Agreement

Terms of Longevity Course Attendance

1. Students must attend every class of the course and must not be late or leave early. Otherwise, students will not be allowed to continue with the course.
2. On the first day of class, students must bring the receipt provided to them during application submission for registration purpose.
3. Students should arrive at least 1 hour before class starts on the first day and at least half an hour early on the subsequent 4 days to line up for registration and be seated sequentially. Students who wish to be seated together must line up together.
4. No non-registered persons and children will be permitted into class.
5. All mobile and audio devices must have the sound switched off during class.
6. No photographing and audio/video recording is permitted during class.
7. No food is allowed in class. Students can bring in drinking water for consumption and other necessary stationeries.
8. A Student Service counter will be set up to handle any student queries and special circumstances during class.
9. Students who require a listening device for interpretation service, must provide a deposit of $50 at the Interpretation Device counter, which will be refunded when the device is returned.
10. Students should refrain from smoking, alcohol or sexual activities during the course, in order to receive maximum benefit from chakra opening.
11. If a student is unable to attend the course before it starts, Mr. Paul Lai must be immediately notified at 416-930-9128 or at longevitytor@gmail.com, so another person on the waiting list will be able to attend.

Code of Conduct for all Students and Graduates

1. I will remain quiet and orderly during registration and class attendance and I will follow the instructions of the volunteers on site. I understand that I will be asked to leave for any disruptive behavior.
2. I will not conduct any personal business during class or any Longevity Toronto activities, including but not limited to, any activities of sales, promotion, religious and political nature.
3. I will not accept any monetary or non-monetary payment for Longevity adjustment service to others.
4. I will not use the name of Longevity to conduct any activities that are not approved by Longevity Benevolent Foundation in Taiwan and Longevity Toronto Canada. This includes but not limited to, forming Longevity groups, training others to perform Longevity adjustment, opening Longevity adjustment centers and fund raising.
5. I will not share the Longevity textbook or any notes and information from the course with any persons who have not attended the Longevity class.
6. I will not disclose to others, any contact and personal information of other students and adjustment patients. I understand that if I violate any terms and condition in the Longevity Toronto Canada Student Agreement, Longevity Toronto Canada has the right to terminate my attendance of the course or cancel my membership at any time and demand the return of the Student ID card and course material

I hereby agree to assume full and complete responsibility for personal safety and personal property in connection with any Longevity Toronto Canada class and activities that I participate in. I hereby waive any right to bring legal action and claim against Longevity Toronto and its management at any time. This release is for any and all liability for personal injury, property loss or damage in connection to any Longevity Toronto activities.

I fully understand the above statements and will abide by all the terms and conditions set forth in this Longevity Toronto Student Agreement.
